

A Happy New Year!

And the best of good health and good luck, is our wish for you.

The largely increased patronage received during the past twelve months is appreciated. We have tried to deserve it by selling worthy goods at reasonable prices.

If you have traded with us in 1901, we ask a continuance. If you are not now a customer, we ask your trade.

Respectfully,

Watkins, Harlan and Evans.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Some of the pupils of Miss Irene Williams gave an impromptu recital at her studio at the Athenaeum, last week, giving much pleasure to their friends by their creditable playing. Miss Williams has a bright class of pupils, and under her skilful tutorage, their musical talents are being brought to the fore and developed.

Little Miss Inez Trousdale, of Highville, who is a guest of Miss Maude Haley, will be the honoree of a pretty party this evening, at Mrs. Haley's residence. Misses Sadie Notgrass, Evie May Johns and Maude Haley will be the hostesses.

The German given by the young men at the Bethel House Christmas night was a very enjoyable affair. Charlie's band of Nashville furnished the music, and the dance was led by Mrs. Lawson of Birmingham, and Mr. J. M. Dedman.

The young people of the Bear creek neighborhood had a party at the residence of Mr. Ed C. Gardner, Wednesday night.

Mrs. John Hunter gave a sumptuous Christmas dinner to several young men Wednesday at her home in South Columbia.

Miss Sarah Cochran was the hostess of a very pretty child's party given Wednesday night on North High street.

A "Watch Party" will be given next Tuesday night—New Year's Eve—by Miss Janie Alexander.

The Student's Club meets next Saturday morning with Miss Mary Bryant at the Institute.

Misses Susie and May Mitchell will entertain to-night at their home on Bear Creek.

Seasonable Goods.

Cocoanuts, Raisins, Prunes, Apples, Oranges, Dates, Seeded Raisins, Currants and Fireworks. We also carry a full line of Loaded Shells. Call and see us before buying elsewhere and get our prices. Best Sugar House Molasses in town.

WHITE BROS.

N. Main St. Both Phones.

SOUTH COLUMBIA.

Miss Verda Kelsey has returned to her home in Louisville.

Eugene Guest of Florence, Ala., arrived Monday to visit relatives.

Mr. T. H. Neeley, formerly of this county but now of Iron City, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haywood this week.

Miss Alice Gibson, of McCains, is visiting friends and relatives in South Columbia this week.

Mrs. Ed Clark and children of Louisville, are visiting in the city.

Mr. John W. Jackson is on the sick list, suffering with mumps.

Mrs. Clarence Williams and master Ronald Ragsdale, who have been visiting in Sheffield, Ala., returned Monday.

Mr. J. M. Bates has moved to the house formerly occupied by Mr. J. L. Beatey.

Mrs. Dodd, of Mississippi, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nix.

BONDS! BONDS! BONDS!

HENDLEY & WILSON, who represent the best fire and tornado insurance companies in the world, are also agents for the American Bonding and Trust Company, which executes bonds of Administrators, Executors, Guardians, Trustees, Bank Officials, and every class of employees.

New Piano For Sale at a Real Bargain Price.

Comparatively new Steger upright piano, with mandolin attachment; beautiful cherry case, and works in fine order and tone. Pretty stool and piano cover. All for $250 CASH. Property of Miss Kate Aydelotte. Can be seen at residence of Mr. W. C. Aydelotte, South High street. Parties desiring to buy may call at Herald office for further particulars. J.W.-f

PERSONALS.

Duke Biddle is here from Nashville. Witherspoon Hayes, of Vanderbilt, is here.

Miss Alice Butler is in Franklin this week.

Miss Lena B. Smith is visiting in Fayetteville.

Mrs. C. B. Earley is with her mother, in Gallatin.

Hon. Flournoy Rives, of Pulaski, was in the city Monday.

Frank Nicholson of Harrison, Tenn., is here.

Mr. J. C. Dexter of Cincinnati, is at home for the holidays.

Mr. A. C. Floyd is here from St. Louis for the holidays.

Mr. Audie Green, of Lewisburg, is visiting Mr. Riggs Hayes.

Knox Fleming came up from Birmingham to spend Christmas.

Miss Myrtle Carter left Wednesday for her home in Glasgow, Ky.

Miss Dora Adkisson, of McCains, is visiting Mrs. Ab Adkisson.

Miss Josie Walker, of Arkansas, is a guest of Mrs. Gus Watson.

James J. King, of the University of Tennessee, at Knoxville, is here.

Mrs. Evan Jones has gone to Decatur, Ala., to spend the Yuletide season.

Miss Myrtle Carter will leave in a few days for her home in Glasgow, Ky.

Misses Ida and Bessie Lipscomb are spending several days in Nashville.

Miss Ethel Adams is here from Mt. Pleasant, the guest of Mrs. Ed Ford.

Lawrence Parker is home for the holidays from the college at Russellville, Ky.

Miss Virginia Zuccavilla, of Pulaski, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Voorhies.

Mr. Milton Brooks, Los Angeles, Cal., is here to spend the holidays with relatives.

Miss Louise Woodside has returned from a visit to Savannah and Waynesboro.

Mrs. John Mitchell and children have returned from a visit to Henderson, Tenn.

Misses Ella and Annie Helm spent last week with Miss Cecily Kittrell at Loco.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McGaw of New Decatur, Ala., are spending the holidays here.

Dr. K. S. Howlett of Franklin, was circulating among his Columbia friends Monday.

Mrs. L. M. Alford will return today from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. John Aul, in Nashville.

Colin James of Memphis, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. James.

Mr. Frank Borum arrived Monday from Alabama to spend the holidays with his home folks.

Miss Eloise Brooks is here from Hampshire to spend the holidays with Mrs. H. F. Faries and family.

Mrs. Miller, who has been visiting Mrs. Josie Harlan, has returned to her home in Hannibal, Mo.

Miss Clara Alcorn has gone to Paragould, Ark., where she will be the guest of Miss Frances Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adams and daughter, Francis, are here to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. W. M. Biddle left Saturday evening for Lexington, Ky., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Boardman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walker have returned from Pulaski, and are with Mrs. John Haley for a few days.

Dr. W. Ammerman and family moved today to Franklin, Tenn., where they will open an office Jan. 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Alexander and Mrs. A. B. Falkner of Nashville, are visiting relatives in the city.

Miss Sallie Friel, who is teaching near Clarksville, is spending the holidays with her father, Capt. James Friel, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Oakes, of Pulaski, have gone to Morrilton, Ark., to see their daughter, Mrs. C. C. Terry, who is critically ill.

Mr. J. L. Jones, Jr., of Dallas, Texas, is here on a visit to relatives. He will go to Wisconsin before his return to the Lone Star State.

Mrs. B. M. Renick and children, who have been visiting relatives here for the past two months, left Saturday for their home in Paris, Ky.

Mr. LeMay, of Florence, Ala., will spend this week as guest of Mrs. Newt Jones. He goes from here to Nashville to enter Fall's business college.

Miss Bessie Friel and Miss Celia McCormick, of Nashville, arrived Tuesday evening to visit Capt. Friel's family. Miss Bessie has charge of a school near Nashville.

Dr. J. H. Wilkes' many friends are delighted to see him able to be out on the streets again, and hope that the New Year will restore him to perfect health.

Mr. Albert Campbell is here from Rochester, N. Y., to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Campbell. This is his first trip home in several years.

Messrs. N. W. Lee and Maury Wilborn of New Orleans, reached here a few days since to spend Christmas with their relatives and friends in the Highville neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Monte Fariss, Miss Bernice Johnson and Masters John and William Padgett left Wednesday for Allenton, Williamson county, to spend the holidays.

Mrs. F. Rush Odil, Misses Yancey and Julia Orman of Spring Hill, left Monday evening to spend the holidays with their sister, Mrs. John G. Crabs, of Demopolis, Ala.

Mr. W. R. Shelton arrived Tuesday from Lexington, Ky., to join Mrs. Shelton and spend the holidays here. He is looking well and happy, and his Columbia friends are glad to see him.

Crockett Owen and John Brown, who have been attending Vanderbilt University, came home last week, the latter being threatened with fever. Crockett will remain during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw will leave for Nashville some time in February, where they will make their home. Mr. Bradshaw's office having been transferred to the new terminal building at that place. Mrs. Bradshaw has just returned from a visit to Louisville.

With Grateful Acknowledgments

for your liberal patronage for the past year, we desire to renew our assurance of our best endeavors, and solicit your patronage for 1902. When you get it here you know it is right in

Quality and Price.

Shipment has been made of our large assortment of Landreth's Garden Seeds for 1902. Market gardeners and hot house growers make a note of this.

Yours cordially,

RAINS, the Druggist.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Robert Durham.

The funeral of Mr. Robt. Durham, who died Friday evening, was conducted at his residence on South High street, Saturday at 10 o'clock, by Rev. A. S. Pettie; interment on Knob Creek. Mr. Durham was forty-one years old. He leaves a wife and five children in straightened circumstances, but they have been, and are being kindly remembered by the good people of this city, who deeply sympathize with them in their privations and sorrow.

Mrs. Mamie Kittrell.

Mrs. Mamie Kittrell died Wednesday at her home in Nashville, of consumption, aged thirty years, and was buried yesterday at 10 o'clock at the family graveyard on Knob Creek. She was the daughter of Mr. Mans Vestal of Knob Creek; was a widow, with no children, and a christian woman and most estimable lady in every respect.

Joe Willie the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Martin, died Wednesday of scarlet fever at the home of his parents on the Bear Creek pike, aged two years and three months. The remains were interred to day at 11 o'clock in Rose Hill cemetery, services being conducted by Rev. W. T. Ussery.

Grates.

Grate backs, grate baskets for sale by J. P. STREET & CO.

TO OUR FRIENDS:

For your kindness and patronage during the past year, we extend to you our heartfelt thanks and wish you many happy returns during the New Year. We ask a continuance of the same during the next twelve months, assuring you of the most courteous treatment. We have some rare bargains in Millinery just at this time and can save you money.

Mrs. M. E. Williamson.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Owing to the cold and discomfortableness of the First Methodist church, Sunday, Presiding Elder W. R. Peebles preached a very short sermon, after which the doors of the church were opened and two young men were taken in. Rev. A. P. McFerrin occupied the pulpit as usual at night.

Rev. W. R. Peebles preached at the South Columbia Methodist church Sunday night, and held quarterly conference.

The adjourned meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church will be held next Sunday Dec. 29, at 11 o'clock. The furnace has been repaired, and the house will be made comfortable. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Collins Comedy Company played to a small audience Wednesday night. The Columbia Band will give a three-act comedy at the Opera House to-night.

WORK OF BURGLARS.

Residence of Mr. John E. Walker Near Town Entered.

The residence of Mr. John E. Walker, situated south of town on the Mooresville pike, was entered by burglars Monday night. Several rooms in the house were gone through, and two or three dollars were taken from the pockets of Looney Walker and Col. A. M. Looney. Mr. Walker's father-in-law, who lives with him, a nickel-plated watch was also taken, but so far as known no other articles were stolen. So quietly did the intruders go about their work that nobody in the house was aroused, and this morning the doors were found standing open. No clue to the guilty parties has been discovered.

"Goodyear" RUBBER TIRES

save you money, because they are made of the best material, and the WING prevents foreign substances from getting under the tires; thereby preventing the usual cutting from underneath, as with other makes. Prices the lowest on new tires, as well as on rebuilding with your old tires. Roberts Machine & Implement Co.

AROUND TOWN.

Sunday was the shortest day in the year.

Dr. R. Holding is out again after several days illness.

Leonard, little son of Mrs. Charlotte Hughes, is quite sick with pneumonia.

William Frierson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mead Frierson, is sick with scarlet fever. Little Meade is also sick.

Mrs. E. D. Wilson and children will move this week to Johnson City, Tenn., where they will join Mr. Wilson, who is in business there.

News has been received here of the illness of Mrs. W. K. Boardman in Lexington, Ky., but her friends hope it is nothing serious.

Elizabeth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McGaw, has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but, we are glad to report, is now better.

Mr. John Trotwood Moore has sold to Dr. W. W. McCleary, of Bellevue, Pa., a fine 5-year-old stallion, bought from John W. Alexander of Lynville.

Dr. E. A. Timmons will move in a few days to the office in the Brown Block formerly occupied by Paul Noferi, the tailor, who has moved to another office in the same building.

Robt. William Smith, who has been in the employ of the Columbia Abstract Co., has accepted a position with the L. & N. Railroad Co., in the office of Roanoke Branch, and will enter upon his new duties January 1.

Little Miss Nellie Watson of Spring Hill, captured the big doll offered at the Red Seal Bakery several weeks ago for the little girl who received the most votes. Several little girls were in the contest, which closed Saturday night. The number of votes cast was large for the unavailability of the weather. Little Miss Watson won by a majority of 43 votes.

Mr. Groves Dinning left several days ago for Dresden, where he has formed a partnership with Judge R. E. Maiden for the practice of law. Mr. Dinning has made his home in Columbia for the past year, and has many friends who regret to see him leave. His brother, Mr. J. H. Dinning, will continue his practice here.

Mr. James Sloan of Nashville, was here last week, looking after matters pertaining to the business of the new firm, Sloan & Company, which succeeds the Gamble Grocery Company in January. Mr. Sloan has rented the Dunnington house on West Seventh street, and his cousin, Mr. John Sloan, who will be shipping clerk for the company, has rented the Barnett house, back of the Episcopal church, recently occupied by Mr. George Nichols. They will move their families here about the first of the new year.

Rebekah Officers.

The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Rebekahs Monday night: Mrs. L. J. Huey, Noble Grand; Miss Ida Adkisson, Vice Grand; Miss Minnie Smith, Secretary; Mrs. Laura Dowell, Treasurer. All the members of the drill team are requested to meet to-night for practice, as there will be an initiation next Monday night.

J. ROSENTHAL

The Old Year Dies.

We will soon pass the first mile-stone of the new century. At the beginning of the year we made you some promises. How well we have kept them, we will leave to you to say. However, it might not be amiss to say your encouragement assures us you appreciate our efforts. The old year goes to take its place with thirty-odd others, all of which we can point to with pride.

We wish to assure you of our hearty appreciation of the liberal support and encouragement given us during the year, and shall strive to merit your favors in the future. Sincerely,

J. ROSENTHAL

WEDDING BELLS.

Jones-Emmerson.

A very pretty home wedding took place Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Emmerson, when Mr. Robert Jones of Mt. Pleasant, and Miss Willie Emmerson were united in marriage. The home had been prettily decorated for the occasion. Dr. A. S. Pettie performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Mr. Ernest Sowell and Miss May Tucker were the only attendants. The bride was handsomely gowned in a castor suit and carried a large bunch of bride roses. Mrs. Jones is a charming young lady of pleasing appearance and noble qualities of mind and heart. She has for several years been the Herald's correspondent from Sunnyside. Mr. Jones is bookkeeper at Hunter's Mill, Mt. Pleasant, and is a young man of sterling qualities. The young couple carry Mr. Watson and took the train for Mt. Pleasant, where an elegant reception awaited them at the home of the groom's mother. The Herald extends sincere congratulations.

Watson-Hight.

A wedding in which a number of people took a great deal of interest, occurred Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock at the residence of Rev. W. T. Ussery in South Columbia. It was the uniting in marriage of Mr. Andy Watson and Miss Ethel Hight, by Rev. Mr. Ussery. Mr. Ed Hight and Miss Lillie May Younger, of Nashville, accompanied the bride and groom. The bride is the daughter of Sheriff E. W. Hight, and is a young lady of bright, winning ways and pleasing personality. Mr. Watson is an enterprising young man of fine business qualities. His father has given him and his brother Jack the large home place out on the Pulaski pike, and that is where he and his wife will reside. Immediately after the wedding the young couple and their attendants repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Andrews on South Main street, where a reception was tendered them. A happy future for them is the wish of their many friends.

Ellett-Patton.

Mr. William Ellett and Miss Lucy Patton were married at the Methodist parsonage yesterday at 12:30 o'clock, Rev. A. P. McFerrin performing the ceremony which made the twin one. Immediately after the wedding, the bride and groom left for Mr. Pleasant to spend a few days with the groom's relatives there. On their return to Columbia, they will board at Mrs. Sue Frierson's on West Seventh street. Mr. Ellett is connected with the establishment of Satterfield & Dodson, and is esteemed by them as a most valuable man. His bride is an attractive young lady of Covington, Ky., who during her three years' stay in Columbia as manager of the military department of the Trade Palace, has made many friends by her charming personality and pleasant ways. The Herald joins in congratulations to the happy pair.

Dugger-Green.

A quiet, pretty wedding, which came in the nature of a surprise to many friends of the contracting parties, occurred Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. H. Shumman. It was the occasion of the consummation of the marriage vows of Mr. Samuel Dugger, of Zion, to Miss Nettie Green, daughter of Mr. G. S. L. Green, of Dark's Mills. Rev. A. P. McFerrin performed the ceremony, and Mr. Walter Green and Miss Tillie Johnson were the attendants. The bride is a most estimable young lady, refined and intelligent, while Mr. Dugger is a prominent merchant at Zion, and is a worthy, enterprising man. Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations, the bride and groom, with their attendants, repaired to the home of the groom at Zion.

Helton-Reeves.

Mr. G. T. Helton of Wayne county, and Miss Bettie Reeves were married Monday morning at the residence of Mr. J. M. Harris, on 9th street, Rev. W. T. Ussery performing the ceremony. They left at once for the groom's home near Waynesboro. Mrs. Helton has lived in Columbia for several years and has a great many friends who wish her happiness in her married life. She is an excellent christian woman and has married a man who is said to be in every way worthy of her.

Notgrass-Bell.

Mr. Charlie Notgrass and Miss Roxie Bell were married at the residence of Rev. F. J. Tyler, Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Mr. Tyler performing the ceremony. The wedding was somewhat in the nature of a "Greta Green" affair. The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. K. Bell of Sunnyside and is a pretty, refined, intelligent girl. The groom is a son of Col. Notgrass of Sunnyside. They are making their home at Sunnyside.

Dalton-Bailey.

Thursday night, the 19th, at the home of the bride's father, on North Garden street, the ceremony was said by Rev. W. T. Ussery, uniting in marriage Miss Ora Bailey and Mr. W. M. Dalton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. G. W. Bailey, and is a highly-esteemed young lady. The groom lives about four miles from town on the Mt. Pleasant pike.

Chaffin-Earppe.

Mt. Pleasant, Dec. 24.—Miss Estella Earpp and Mr. Felix Grover Chaffin, of Eriersontown, were married this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at this place by Rev. W. H. Doss. The marriage was a runaway affair. They leave this evening for a bridal tour South.

Reed-Rummage.

The marriage of Mr. A. L. Rummage to Miss Lula Reed took place in South Columbia Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. F. J. Tyler officiating.

The young people of Zion are looking forward to a happy event which will occur in their neighborhood January 2nd. The interesting event referred to is the marriage of Miss Fannie May Stephenson to Mr. James A. Fleming, which will take place at the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. George M. Hodge, son of Mr. George Hodge of Columbia, and Miss Bessie Stoddard, of Savannah, Ga., were married at the bride's home.

Buy the Best, It's the Cheapest

Nicholson, Magrader & Co. represent in their agency the largest Tornado, the largest Fire, the largest Life and Accident Insurance Companies writing INSURANCE in Tennessee. Office in Brown Block. Both phones. 3-20 1y

BETTER THAN EVER.

Those who have not heard the records the Columbia Phonograph Company is now supplying have no conception of the changes and improvements that have recently been made. The Graphophone, in the meantime, has been correspondingly improved. Machines and records which were thought to be almost perfect, a few years ago are far out done in these times of unflinching progress.

Send $5.00 with your order to Columbia Phonograph Co., No. 110 E. Baltimore St., Baltimore, and goods will be shipped C. O. D. for the balance. de133t

Marriage Lincense.

W. J. Workman to Miss Annie Cook. R. Mahlon Moore to Miss Bessie B. Scott. C. R. Dale to Miss M. L. Garner. A. H. Watson to Miss Ethel Hight. D. A. Vaughan to Miss Henrietta Linn. W. M. Ellett to Miss Lucy Patton. W. D. Pennington to Miss Fannie Hight. A. C. Harlan to Miss Ella Pickard. J. Lee Trimble to Miss Carrie Standley.

Notice.

The firm of Seaver & Worley Mfg. Co., has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. W. P. Worley will continue the business and will collect all accounts due said firm and assume all liabilities.

This 24th day December, 1901.

26-11w3t Seaver & Worley Mfg. Co.

To Our Weekly Subscribers.

The HERALD makes this offer to its present subscribers: For every new cash subscriber you will bring us, we will advance your date three months. Bring us four new names, accompanied by the cash, and that will pay your subscription for one year. You will not find it difficult if you will try.

A Nice Christmas Gift.

Messrs. McKee, non, Anderson & Foster, the up-to-date West Seventh street merchants, gave their employees five per cent. of their sales Wednesday, as a Christmas gift. This is a very happy idea on their part, and their enterprise and generosity will be appreciated, not only by the beneficiaries but by the public at large.

Hay, Corn and Oats.

We have all kinds of feed for sale. We are prepared to furnish it in any quantities desired. Merchants we want your trade, and are prepared to duplicate any price you can get.

Columbia Mercantile Storage Co.

Business Changes.

Mr. Richard Wilkes has been promoted to the position of assistant cashier at the Phoenix Bank, to take the place of Mr. C. B. Easley, who leaves the first of January for Sumner county to